INCARNATION - ST. GERARD MAJELLA

Message from our Pastor, June 28, 2026.

This is my last bulletin message to you as pastor. I want to say thank you. Thank you to God for all the years of blessings he has given me to serve here as pastor. 18 years is a lifetime, more than most priests in one assignment and more than I deserve. Thank you to the many priests who I have served with while here. Thank you to the many staff members who have worked with me, past and present. Thank you to every family of our parish for welcoming me into your family. Thank you all for the many graces I have received over these years. You have made me into the priest I am, and I thank you.

If I may, as my final words, a bit of advice. Consider it my last Ten Commandments to you as pastor.

- Pray for your priests, love your priests and support them.
- Support our seminarians and ask more young men from our parish to consider priesthood.
- Pray as a family, always.
- Run to the Lord and to mother Mary for help and intercession.
- Surprise the world and our little part in it by being a welcoming community of faith and inviting all you encounter into that community.
- Forgive each other for small and silly things that may have been done to you, time moves so fast to hold grudges.
- Pray for and support expecting moms and those trying to have kids, and newlyweds.
- Remember that scripture never says where St Thomas was on that Easter Sunday morning, I think it was his turn to get the muffins, that's why they are called "Thomas' English Muffins" - think of that the next time you have a muffin, and laugh.
- Remember that cats, while God's creatures, are evil and hide under cars in order to set bombs or cut break lines.
- Pray to become a saint.

May God always bless you!,

Fr Josephjude C Gannon
1st Pastor
Incarnation-St Gerard Majella Parish
Last Board Chair
Incarnation Catholic Academy

Fr. Gannon, thank you for your leadership, inspiration and guidance all these years. Many blessings to you and Spike.

INCARNATION - ST. GERARD MAJELLA

Mensaje de nuestro párroco, 28 de junio de 2026.

Este es mi último mensaje para ustedes en el boletín como párroco. Quiero darles las gracias. Gracias a Dios por todos los años de bendiciones que me ha concedido para servir aquí como párroco. Dieciocho años son toda una vida; más tiempo del que pasan la mayoría de los sacerdotes en un mismo destino y más de lo que merezco. Gracias a los numerosos sacerdotes con los que he servido durante mi estancia aquí. Gracias a los muchos miembros del personal que han trabajado conmigo, tanto en el pasado como en el presente. Gracias a cada familia de nuestra parroquia por acogerme como a uno de los suyos. Gracias a todos por las muchas gracias que he recibido a lo largo de estos años. Ustedes han hecho de mí el sacerdote que soy, y se los agradezco.

Si me lo permiten, quisiera ofrecerles un pequeño consejo a modo de despedida. Considérenlo como mis últimos "Diez Mandamientos" para ustedes como párroco:

- Oren por sus sacerdotes, ámenlos y apóyenlos.
- Apoyen a nuestros seminaristas y animen a más jóvenes de nuestra parroquia a considerar el sacerdocio.
- Oren en familia, siempre.
- Acudan al Señor y a la Madre María en busca de ayuda e intercesión.
- Sorprendan al mundo —y a la pequeña parte que nos corresponde en él— siendo una comunidad de fe acogedora e invitando a formar parte de ella a todos aquellos con quienes se encuentren.
- Perdónense mutuamente por las cosas pequeñas y triviales que les hayan podido hacer; el tiempo pasa demasiado rápido para guardar rencor.
- Oren por las futuras madres, por quienes intentan tener hijos y por los recién casados, y bríndenles su apoyo.
- Recuerden que las Escrituras nunca dicen dónde estaba Santo Tomás aquella mañana de Domingo de Pascua; creo que le tocaba a él ir a comprar los muffins (panecillos), por eso se llaman "Thomas' English Muffins" (Muffins ingleses de Thomas); piensen en esto la próxima vez que coman uno y ríanse.
- Recuerden que los gatos, aunque son criaturas de Dios, son malvados y se esconden debajo de los coches para colocar bombas o cortar los cables de los frenos.
- Oren para llegar a ser santos.

Que Dios los bendiga siempre.

Padre Josephjude C. Gannon

The INC– SGM Spanish community.

With grateful hearts, the Spanish Community of Incarnation–St. Gerard Majella Parish thank Fr. Josephjude Gannon for the years of faithful service and dedicated leadership.

Through his leadership, kindness, and dedication, Father Gannon has guided our parish with wisdom and faith. Although English was his first language and his cultural background was different from that of many parishioners, he embraced our vibrant Spanish-speaking community with an open heart. He worked tirelessly to ensure that all felt welcomed, valued, and included in the life of the Church.

We thank God for the gift of his ministry and for the many blessings we have received through his service. While we will miss his presence among us, we send him forth with our prayers, love, and best wishes.

May the Lord continue to bless Father Gannon abundantly as he begins this new assignment.

INCARNATION - ST. GERARD MAJELLA

“Parting is such sweet sorrow.” (Romeo and Juliet, Act 2, Scene 2) These timeless words capture the bittersweet nature of goodbyes, intertwining the sadness of parting with the sweetness of love, gratitude, and cherished memories. They aptly express the sentiments of the Board of Trustees of Incarnation Catholic Academy as we bid farewell to Fr. Josephjude Gannon.

Our sadness is especially profound as his departure coincides with the permanent closing of the Academy. We recognize, appreciate, and deeply value his tireless dedication, creative leadership and unwavering efforts to secure the resources necessary for the school’s continued existence. We know that, given the choice, the Academy’s doors would be opening in September. Yet, we place our trust in God’s providence and humbly pray, “Thy will be done.”

As Fr. Gannon embarks on the next chapter of his ministry, the Board sends him forth with our heartfelt gratitude, prayers, and best wishes, to continue fulfilling his calling as a faithful and obedient servant of God and to embrace the promise proclaimed in Scripture: “Behold, I make all things new” (Revelation 21:5). In that promise of renewal, we find comfort and hope. It reminds us that every ending can also be a new beginning and strengthens our faith as we await the fulfillment of God’s promise of eternal life with our Heavenly Father.

May God bless Fr. Gannon abundantly as he continues his journey of service, faith, and discipleship.

Dona Morales,

Board Vice Chair

Dear Father Gannon,

As you prepare to your new parish assignment, We want to express our heartfelt gratitude for your dedication, sacrifice, and faithful service to Incarnation/St. Gerard Majella parish communities. We have always admired how you tirelessly served not just one but two churches at the same time. Despite your busy schedule and the constant running back and forth, you always made time for your parishioners, celebrated the sacraments with joy, and led us with kindness, humility, and faith. Your commitment has been a true blessing to all of us.

We will miss your presence, your guidance, and the warmth you brought to our parish. We will also miss hearing about and seeing the special bond you share with your beloved dog “spiky”, who surely brought you comfort and companionship through your many busy days.

Thank you for all the prayers, encouragement, and care you have given us. May God bless you abundantly in your new assignment with good health, happiness, renewed strength, and many faithful people to support you. We will keep you, and your faithful four- legged companion , in our prayers.

Please remember that you will always have a place in our hearts and in our parish family.

With sincere gratitude and prayers,

The Filipino community

Querido Padre Gannon:

Agradecemos su ayuda, discernimiento, templanza y bendición en todo momento de parte del Grupo Carismatico "Jesus Esta Vivo", muchos Líderes, Servidores, y Discípulos de Cristo hemos desfilado en este Grupo de Oración y a través de estos 18 años de su liderazgo dentro de San Gerardo hemos sido testigos de la transformación y entrega suya por esta parroquia y su comunidad, nos ha tocado ser testigos de su Despedida, pero nos ha dejado un legado de respeto hacia nuestra parroquia, pues aun sabiendo que algun día llegaría este día, decidio entregar parte de su vida a ello y dar lo mejor de sí mismo para el bienestar de esta Comunidad. Nos Entristece su partida pero sabemos que allá donde el Señor lo está llevando, usted llevara esa misma convicción de alegría y determinación por Servirle a Dios, como lo ha hecho con nosotros, sabemos que usted es y seguirá siendo determinante en su vocación de ayudar.

Seguiremos Orando por Usted, cómo lo hacemos cada viernes, pediremos que el Espíritu Santo lo guíe Siempre, que el amor de Dios siempre lo abrace, que Madre Maria lo y cuide en todo momento. Queremos que usted lleve en su corazón este Grupo de Oración que como su nombre lo dice "Jesús Está Vivo" así permanecerá usted en nuestros corazones sus esfuerzos y sacrificios por hacer de esta Parroquia un Lugar donde se puede encontrar con Cristo.

Con Mucho Cariño:

Dirigentes, Servidores, y Asistentes del Grupo Carismatico Catolico "Jesus Esta Vivo".

Dear Father Gannon:

On behalf of the "Jesus Is Alive" Charismatic Group, we thank you for your help, discernment, composure, and blessing at all times. Many leaders, servers, and disciples of Christ have passed through this prayer group; throughout your 18 years of leadership at San Gerardo, we have witnessed your transformation of and dedication to this parish and its community. While we are saddened to see you leave, you have left us a legacy of respect for our parish, for even knowing that this day would eventually come, you chose to devote part of your life to it and give the very best of yourself for the well-being of this community. We are saddened by your departure, yet we know that wherever the Lord is leading you, you will carry with you that same conviction of joy and determination to serve God—just as you have done with us. We know that you are, and will continue to be, a vital force in your vocation of helping others

We will continue to pray for you, just as we do every Friday, asking that the Holy Spirit always guide you, that God's love always embrace you, and that Mother Mary watch over and protect you at all times. We want you to carry this prayer group in your heart; just as its name proclaims—"Jesus Is Alive"—so too will you remain in our hearts, along with your efforts and sacrifices to make this parish a place where one can encounter Christ.

With Much Love:

Leaders, Servers, and Attendees of the "Jesus Is Alive" Catholic Charismatic Group.
